Announcement

Susan M. Hicks Memorial Fund for Graduate Student Research in Eurasia

This annual award is meant to honour Susan, a young woman who touched many with her exuberance for life and passion for Russia, including during her time as a PhD student in our UBC Anthropology program (2005-2012). The Susan M. Hicks Award for Graduate Research in Eurasia will be awarded on an annual basis. All UBC Faculty of Arts graduate students planning to conduct research in Eurasia broadly defined as the regions of the former Soviet Union and neighboring countries shaped by the legacy of state socialism, are eligible to apply for the award (normally $500). An application should consist of one page clearly outlining the project for which funding is sought, including what portion of the project would be supported by the award; contact information for the applicant, as well as the applicant's graduate supervisor, should also be indicated. The deadline for application will be March 1 of each year and a faculty steering committee will adjudicate and announce the awardees by April 1 of each year.

Please direct inquiries to Dr. Alexia Bloch at: abloch@mail.ubc.ca
