Thanks

Thank you John Barker for all of his hard work during his term as Department Head.

Thank you and farewell to Radicy Braletic for all her hard work as the Anthropology and Sociology Administrator. Out of her 34 years at UBC, 23 years have been in AnSo.

Thanks to Anthropology Graduate Student Association (AGSA) and Anthropology Student Association (ASA) for the great contributions and successful projects this academic year.

Thanks to our Graduate and Undergraduate representatives this past year for their contributions at the Department meetings and in the department as a whole!

Announcements

Welcome to our new Anthropology and Sociology Administrator, Yvonne Diamond. Yvonne comes from Math department where she has worked as an Administrator for the past 12 years. Yvonne brings with her twenty plus years of UBC experience. She will officially start on 2 July 2013.

Congratulations to our new co-Department Heads, Pat Moore and Sue Rowley. Their official term as co-Heads begins on 1 July 2013.

Congratulations to Patricia Ormerod, promoted as Manager of the Laboratory of Archaeology (LOA) effective May 2013.
Congratulations to all of our Anthropology graduates! (PhD, MA and BA)

Anthropology’s very own Sarah Jane Kerr-Lapsley addressed the graduating students at the Convocation last May 23rd. Well done, SJ!
The following students have been successfully completed their Thesis.

Graduate Program

The Department of Anthropology at UBC calls for the submission of the Best Graduate Paper and Aberle and Gough Award in Applied Anthropology for the preceding year.

A. The Best Graduate Paper award categories are:
   - Julie Cruikshank Award for Best Graduate Student Paper
   - Harry Hawthorne Award for Best MA thesis

Award:
$50 UBC bookstore gift certificate prize and a notation on our website

Eligibility:
In order to be eligible, the applicant must be a graduate student in the Department of Anthropology and the paper must have been written in the past year, July 1 to June 30. Papers submitted in both terms are eligible.
Details:
If you would like to nominate a paper, there are three ways to submit the paper:
- If you have a copy, submit it to the Graduate Office (c/o Eleanore) for scanning
- Ask the student to leave a copy of the paper to the Graduate Office
- Ask the student to send an electronic copy to Eleanore at anth.grad@ubc.ca

Criteria:
The award will be adjudicated on the basis of the quality of the writing, the clarity of the argument, and the substantive or practical contributions it makes to the field.

B. Aberle and Gough Award in Applied Anthropology

Award:
$500 Cash

Details:
The award recognizes the work of graduate students in the department that explore the application of anthropological methods and theory to the analysis of contemporary practical and/or social problems. Essays will be considered from any of the sub-disciplines.

Eligibility:
In order to be eligible, the applicant must be a graduate student in the Department of Anthropology and the paper must have been written in the past year, July 1 to June 30.

Criteria:
The award will be adjudicated on the basis of the quality of the writing, the clarity of the argument, and the substantive or practical contributions it makes to the field.

Deadline (both awards):
July 31st
Recognitions, Grants, Awards, Prizes and Scholarships

Brett Schrewe, (IIGSP, Anthropology) placed first in the UBC Pediatric Resident and Fellows Research Day competition at BC Children’s Hospital UBC for his paper: Conversion Through Conversation: Towards An Understanding of Medical Professional Identity Evolution Through Everyday Interaction. He will represent UBC at the 25th Annual National Pediatric Resident And Fellow Research Competition at the Manitoba Institute of Child Health in Winnipeg.

Brooke McFarlane, winner of this year’s Julie Cruikshank Award for Best Undergraduate Paper’s essay, "The Cultural Biography of Haida Bracelets: Contextual Transformations". The paper was submitted to Carol Mayer and Nuno Porto’s ANTH 431. The prize comes with a $50 book award.
