Introducing the 2017-2018 Anthropology Colloquia

The Department of Anthropology’s Colloquium Series brings in exciting and engaging guest speakers whose lectures span all the sub-disciplines of Anthropology and Archaeology. The Colloquium Series runs throughout the academic year.

- October 5 • 11:30-1:00 • ANSO 134
  Beyond the Rainbow Bridge: Vernacular Ontologies and Animal Afterlives
  Professor Sabina Magliocco

  To what extent do modern Westerners imagine animals as spiritual beings? How do they view animals’ interiority compared with their own? Professor Magliocco hypothesizes that as personhood is increasingly extended to companion animals, people are more likely to imagine afterlives for all animals that parallel their beliefs about human afterlives.

- October 19 • 11:30 - 1:00 • ANSO 134
  The Fire and the Rose are One: Eroticism and Ritual as Agents of Change in American Contemplative Christianity
  Dr. Paula Pryce

  Drawing from five years of ethnographic fieldwork, Dr. Pryce discusses the roles of Bridal Mysticism, ritual, and pluralism in contesting long-established doctrines of religious institutions, while also exploring practitioners’ deliberate cultivation of communitas as an agent of perceptual and social change.

- November 2 • 11:30 - 1:00 • ANSO 134
  Repatriation from an Angolan Perspective: Politics, Advertising, and Business
  Dr. Nuno Porto

  Restitution of African art and artefacts to contemporary African countries, has been a permanent unhidden agenda for post independences African leaders. In this presentation, Dr. Porto explores immediate consequences of the approach to repatriation as business.

- November 16 • 11:30 - 1:00 • ANSO 134
  Can We Measure “Impacts” to Culture? The Role of Anthropology in Canada’s Shifting Legal and Regulatory Regimes
  Dr. Molly Malone

  Dr. Malone describes the current context in which anthropology is used by various parties in conflicts related to resource extraction and Indigenous rights and title, and discusses the tensions faced by practitioners at a time when both Canada and the discipline of anthropology are grappling with their colonial roots.
Dr. Paula Pryce is the co-organizer of “Worlds of Wonder: People Making Places Sacred”, a year-long interdisciplinary speaker series on the subject of sacred space, held at The Coach House, Green College, UBC.

Join us for Oralia Gómez-Ramírez’s practice talk for her dissertation defense on October 17 at 11:30am-1:00pm in ANSO 2107. Oralia’s dissertation is titled, “‘We are Trans Women’: On-street Sex Work and Transgender Politics in Mexico City.”
