Foundations on Running Water: The Archaeology of Water and Settlement

Postponed until March 2021

The University of British Columbia
xʷməθkʷəy̓əm (Musqueam) Territory
Saturday, March 21st, 2020
ANSO 205 8:30-5:00

Keynote address:
Water Histories of Ancient Yemen and the American West

DR. MICHAEL HARROWER

Water and its histories reveal deep similarities and pivotal differences among human societies. Michael Harrower (Associate Professor of Archaeology, Johns Hopkins University) will present highlights of his recent book that compares and contrasts water histories of ancient Yemen (3200 BC - 600 AD) and the American West (2000 BC - AD 1950).